The water in the washing machine isn't filling up. Check the water hoses first if your washing machine isn't filling up with enough water or isn't filling up at all. To do so, check the hoses for blockages or twists; if anything is found, merely repair the line so that water can flow through it. If the water is still not filling up, you can fix a service call with Lloyd washing machine customer care through OneDios. Q2. How to get rid of a smell in the AC? You're likely smelling fungus growing inside the AC or in the ducts. Whether it's bacteria, mildew, or a dead animal, this has a foul odour and poses a health risk. As a result, removing the source of any stench from an AC is essential. OneDios Lloyd customer care can help you fix all problems related to your AC. Q3. The water in the washing machine isn't draining. A blocked drain hose is the most common reason for a washing machine that won't drain. In this case, you should manually drain the washer before clearing the pipe and cleaning the filter. You can book a service call with Lloyd customer care using the OneDios app and have your issue resolved. Q4. I am from Delhi and need help with my TV. I want to know why there are dark patches on my led TV. Dirt, as well as dead or blocked pixels, causes black spots on LCD screens. Dark spots on an LCD screen can damage the picture quality and ruin the watching experience, particularly if they're in the mid. Dust, dirt, or debris form black spots on the screen surface. If you face similar issues, contact Lloyd TV customer care through OneDios. Q5. Why is everything freezing in my fridge? If your food is frozen, it's possible that the temperature in your fridge was set too low by mistake. This common issue can cause food in your fridge to freeze. We are happy to help you! (India) Customer Care No.: 08045 Website: havells.com/lloyd/contact-us Subject: Urgent Escalation: Repeated Water Leakage Issue in AC - Unresolved Despite Multiple Complaints Dear Lloyd Customer Care Team, I am writing this to formally escalate my grievance regarding a persistent issue with my Lloyd AC unit, which has remained unresolved despite raising multiple complaints during the warranty period. I have sent numerous emails to protected@havells.com, grievance.protected@havells.com,... Screen went blank with solid colors after one week of censored. No resolution yet. Technician tried for 1 hour... Address: 672/2, KDA Colony, Jajmau, Kanpur I have purchased Lloyd AC on 14 May, 2023.. From 2 month of purchase Ac is facing multiple issues like water leakage, cooling and many more problems regarding the compressor like noise. I have called customer care within guarantee period but no issues resolved now it's being a year guarantee period is also gone...now they asking for customer charges for the service...when my issue is not resolved in the 2 months of purchase then why should... OneDios is the go to destination to register service requests for customer care for electronics, durables, kitchen appliances and most other product categories. Most customers have to go through the pain to contact call center or customer care number of brand to register a service request. Finding this customer care number or finding the service center itself is not a pleasant task and many a time a wrong customer care number or a wrong address of a service center working as a front for brand finds its way in. Even if the customer care no is found, reaching out to an executive in a customer care center is not easy. The IVR process makes registering of a service request a slow and painful process. OneDios eliminates all these problems and eases reaching out to customer care of any product of any brand within 60 seconds. OneDios app on Android and iOS platforms and a responsive website makes access to customer care and brand service uncomplicated, simple and within reach. More over OneDios enables easy access to getting in warranty service, or out of warranty service directly from the brand. Apart from service, customer can also buy extended warranty or Annual maintenance contract or AMC directly from the brands on OneDios. OneDios also enables end consumers to leave a review for the service that they avail, making it possible for feedback to directly reach brands. Easy access to customer service directly from brand without calling the customer care number or contacting the service center is the promise of OneDios. Air conditioner, AC, Washing machine, Ro Water purifier, refrigerator, TV, microwave, dishwasher, etc are some of the products that require access to customer service frequently and easy availability of customer care irrespective of brand and product helps end consumers keep OneDios app on their phone.
