It is not vlezig, but a good semi-look-a-like. The hamburger is well seasoned and tastes great. And the structure is perfect for me. One of the substitutes of Ah meat that will certainly be on my plate more often! Grade: 8.5 Prize: € 2,39 Albert Heijn Vegan boned wings happily, but that there are no bones (false) in these vegan chicken legs. Then I would have left them. But fortunately, I didn't do that because I found them very tasty. I ate them at a nasal moment and they had a perfect taste with their crispy crust. The interior is quite soft, but it has a chicken structure. How chicken pieces are a little bigger than many chicken nuggets Vega or Vega chicken burgers, you can taste very well. Perfect in combination with the crispy exterior if you ask me! I found a good alternative to the Vega chicken burgers (preferably those of Lidl!), which are here almost every week on my plate. Number: 7 Price: € 2,69 Albert Heijn Hungarian Vegan Style Schnitzel Vegetarian schnitzels I ate many times. I thought that Hungarian schnitzel wouldn't be very special. Boy, I was wrong! This schnitzel is different from most of the Schnitzels of Gypsy Vega. It smells like cinnamon, but it tastes like pepper and other hot herbs. I immediately thought of typical Hungarian dishes such as Goulash, which also have such a hot spicy taste. Anyway, I thought it was a very tasty schnitzel. Unlike normal, very well experienced and a little firmer than most Vega-Schnitzels! Note: 7.5 Price: € 2,49 Swedish vegan balls The last time I ate meatballs for real was 15 years ago. So you can imagine that my memory of the typical taste of meat is no longer very good.
